Welcome to the January/February 2019 Issue of FreeBSD® JOURNAL

As we announced in the last issue, FreeBSD Journal is now a Free subscription. Readers can access and share current and past issues for free. That's not all. We're also moving away from the Apple and Google mobile apps and debuting an enhanced, browser-based edition that will provide a much better experience for readers using any device—mobile or otherwise—for reading FreeBSD Journal. Beginning with the March/April 2019 issue, a new options menu will allow you to easily share articles with friends and listen to the articles with the new narration feature. Plus, jumping from issue to issue will be easier than ever with the new carousel format. If you currently view FreeBSD-Journal on one of the mobile apps, please ignore any renewal reminders you may receive and check out our FAQ (<https://www.freebsd.foundation.org/journal/freebsd-journal-faqs/>) for more information on how to sign up for the free, browser-based edition.

This issue's focus is Getting Started with FreeBSD. What better way to share that message than by making FreeBSD Journal freely available! We look forward to bringing FreeBSD Journal's timely and informative articles to a larger audience and hope you'll share your favorites with colleagues and friends.
